New York, Oct. 10.—Rube Benton, turning the Chicago White Sox batsmen away from the plate, carried the National league champions to a 2 to 0 victory today. The Giant's hurler held the White Sox batters helpless with his baffling curves. The series now stands: Chicago Americans, 2; New York Nationals, 1.

The New York Nationals having executed, as they declare, a strategic retirement to prepared positions on the polo grounds, found themselves today confronting the White Sox in the third game of the world's series. New York had their backs to the wall to ward off the on-rushing pennant winners, who have captured two straight games and need only to annex two more to win the championship of the world.

An early count indicated over 35,000 persons jammed into the vast concrete structure, with more coming.

The Line-Up.
Chicago.—J. Collins, lf.; McMullen, 3b; E. Collins, 2b; Jackson, rf.; Felsch, cf.; Gandil, 1b; Weaver, ss; Schalk, c; Cicotte, p.

New York.—Burns, lf.; Herzog, 2b; Kauff, cf.; Zimmerman, 3b; Fletcher, ss; Robertson, rf.; Holke, 1b; Rariden, c; Sallee, p.

"We will try to make it four straight," said Manager Rowland, as he led his warriors on the field. "It will either be Cicotte or Russell against the Giants. We want to end the series here."

Manager McGraw realized the handicap his club was under and had a few last things to say to his men in the clubhouse before the contest. The Giants hoped for a few breaks in the game to get them started. The playing field was reported to be in good shape, although the outfielders were said to be somewhat slow.

Fielding Practice.
The fielding practice of the Giants was sharp and brilliant and brought cheers from the thousands in the stands.

Mayor Mitchell was escorted across the field by a platoon of police to the mayor's box in the grand stand.

Manager McGraw then upset predictions by warming up Rube Benton, another of his left handers, while Rowland sent out Cicotte to get into condition.

Fine Form.
The Sox displayed fine form in their fielding practice and the New York partisans cheered them to the echo.

The batteries finally announced were: For Chicago, Cicotte and Schalk, and for New York, Benton and Rariden.

First Inning.
First Half—John Collins up. The crowd gave a great cheer as Collins walked to the plate. Mayor Mitchell threw out the first ball to Benton. Ball one, strike, a foul. Ball two, John Collins fouled out to Rariden, who took the ball near the grand stand.

McMullen up. McMullen struck out, hitting at a low curve inside for the third strike. Eddie Collins up. E. Collins got a single into centerfield. Jackson up. Benton threw out Jackson at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Half—Burns up. Burns struck out and the Chicago partisans cheered loudly. Herzog up. Cicotte was working the ball around the knees. Herzog flied out to Felsch, who did not have to move to take the ball. Kauff up. J. Collins dropped Kauff's high fly and the batter reached second. Zimmerman up. Zimmerman scratched an infield hit. Kauff going to third. Fletcher up. Fletcher forced Zimmerman, McMullen to E. Collins. No runs, one hit, one error.

Second Inning.
First Half—Felsch up. Felsch fouled out to Holke. Gandil up. Gandil also sent up a high fly to Holke. Weaver up. Weaver stung a single over shortstop. Schalk up. Weaver stole second. The umpire had called him out, but then discovered that Fletcher had dropped the ball. Schalk flied out to Burns, who had to come in fast to make the catch. No runs, one hit, one error.

Second Half—Robertson up. Robertson singled over second. Holke up. Eddie Collins took Holke's grounder and touched Robertson on the line. Holke being safe at first. Rariden up. Rariden singled over second. Holke going to third. Benton up. The stands were in an uproar. The Chicago infield played in on the grass. Benton flied to Felsch, but Holke held third. On the throw to the plate Rariden went to second. Burns up, who struck out for the second time. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning.
First Half—Cicotte up. He was warmly applauded by the crowd. Cicotte sent up a high foul to Rariden. J. Collins up. Benton had plenty of speed and a sharp breaking ball on (Continued on Page Eight.)

'17 WHEAT GOES
$69,801,750 IN EXCESS OF 1916

Value of Single Crop This Year
More Than Double That of Last—Quality Better

FIVE LEADING PRODUCTS

SHOW SUBSTANTIAL GAIN

North Dakota's 58,600,000 bushels of 1917 wheat at $2.03 the bushel are worth $69,801,750 more than the 39,325,000 bushels produced in this state in 1916 and sold at $1.25 per bushel. The actual value of North Dakota's 1917 wheat crop will be much more in excess of the price received in 1916 than this comparison shows, for the quality of wheat is far superior. The 1916 wheat was so poor that it was with difficulty that sufficient seed for this year was obtained from it.

Five Crops Show Gain.
This comparative data is taken from the government crop report for North Dakota, comparing the October 1 estimate with the December, 1916, report. The government statistics show a gain of $83,731,250 for five leading North Dakota crops, including potatoes and hay, and excluding barley and rye, in which a decided gain will be shown, and flaxseed, which probably will show a small loss, even at the prevailing price of $3.25 the bushel. Even with but half a crop, flax at present prices will yield the North Dakota farmer $15,080,000.

The October estimate for wheat is 58,600,000 bushels as compared with 39,325,000, the final estimate for 1916. The average price is $2.03 as compared with $1.25, and the total value based on this price is $118,958,000, as compared with $49,156,250.

Oats Worth More.
The October estimate for oats is 33,600,000 bushels, valued at $21,616,000, as compared with 33,750,000 bushels produced in 1916 and valued at $21,000,000. October oats are worth 50 cents. The 1916 price was 40 cents. October corn, estimated at 40,770,000 bushels, is valued at $8,537,200, as compared with 33,115,000 bushels at $1,487,750 last year. October potatoes, estimated at 5,290,000 bushels, are worth $7,935,000 as compared with $6,665,250 for 1916's 6,975,000-bushel crop. October hay, estimated at 1,875,000 tons, is worth $18,957,500, as compared with 3,554,000 tons, worth $23,456,400, shown in the final estimate for 1916.

Flaxseed is estimated at but 4,640,000 bushels as compared with 8,137,000, the final 1916 estimate. Rye shows 9,310,000 bushels, a gain of 100 bushels over the 1916 crop of 4,655,000 bushels. October barley, at 23,500,000 bushels, shows a slight loss from the 1916 crop of 26,738,000, but the much higher price more than discounts the difference.

The 1917 wheat crop, although but one-third as great in volume, in value almost parallels the bumper 1916 crop of 1915.

London, Oct. 10.—A revolutionary outbreak on German warships in Wilhelmshaven about six weeks ago is reported in a dispatch from Copenhagen. This uprising is said to have had all the elements of a widespread and organized revolt and to have been suppressed with the greatest difficulty.

Several counter attacks were made were reported to have occurred among soldiers at the front. These were not of such a grave character, the dispatch says.

Several counter attacks were made by the Germans last night in the neighborhood of the Ypres-Staden railway. Today's official statement says these attacks were repulsed, but south of the railway on a front of 2,000 yards, the British advance troops were forced back a short distance.

GERMAN STATEMENT.
Berlin, Oct. 10.—The battlelines in the west are held firmly by their defenders, says today's army headquarters report. Repeated hostile attacks upon this front of approximately eight miles all broke down with the heaviest losses, it is declared.

Eleven British divisions were engaged in yesterday's battle in Flanders, in addition to the French troops, which attacked, the statement announces.

To Lose Submarine Base.
One more stroke, perhaps two, and the Germans must bow before the superior power of the allies in Flanders and retreat. Should the Germans retreat to the line of Bruges-Thiel-Courtaille, they would relinquish their hold on the greater part of the Belgian coast, now used by them for submarine bases. Their retirement to this line also would make a sharp salient north of Lille unless they chose to give up that stronghold and retreat to Tournai.

Tuesday the British and French made their gains under difficult conditions. The weather was stormy and the ground was soaked from the rains of several days.

Southeast of Broedeseinde to St. Jansbeek, where they joined the French, the British made gains all along the line. At Broedeseinde, the Australians went over the crest of the Passchendaele ridge, while other troops advanced a mile north along the ridge, gaining all objectives. In the center, Poelcapelle fell into British hands and a considerable advance was made between it and the ridge.

On the left, the outskirts of the forest of Houtholst were gained in advance. Two miles northwest of Poelcapelle, the French took all the German defenses on a two mile front, captured two villages and reached the forest of Houtholst. German prisoners to the number of more than 1,300 were taken by the Anglo-French troops.

BLOW GREAT SUCCESS.
British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 10.—The blow struck by the British and French forces today against a wide section of the German defenses between the Houtholst forest and Broedeseinde has resulted in another great success. Over much of the front the attacking troops swept forward to a depth of 1,200 yards or more, over-running many important strongholds of the shattered enemy.

Allies Digging In.
This afternoon the allies were digging in almost on the outskirts of the forest, and the British were beyond Poelcapelle, after sanguinary hand to hand fighting. Further south they had gained the Passchendaele ridge within less than 1,000 yards of Passchendaele, thereby wrenching away almost all that remained to the Germans of their famous ridge system of fortifications.

German Losses Great.
Again the Germans have been great, and reported from all along the lines indicate their organization and morale were hit hard.

Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans by the preliminary bombardment and during the fighting also. At an early hour the French reported the capture of several hundred prisoners, and also that their own losses were light.

The board is making no loans at present, but is filing applications in the order of their receipt. It is not probable that farmers who have petitioned for state loans can be accommodated until after January 1. The purchase of municipal and school bonds has been abandoned entirely for the time being, the board feeling that all of the funds at its disposal should be preserved for the benefit of the farmer who may need assistance to tide him over the winter.

The almost utter depletion of the school investment funds is due to a heavy demand for farm loans last spring, when many farmers borrowed money from the state to enable them to put in the large acreage which Uncle Sam asked from North Dakota.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Germany has passed the zenith of her military effectiveness and now is on the decline, according to a formal review issued here by the French high commission, based on data of the French general staff. While the point of greatest stretch, as being maintained pending the arrival of America's complete army, the enemy's vitality slowly is being sapped under the terrific strain of the allied offensive.

The attrition of the German forces on the west front has been marked, and even transfer of many divisions from the Russian front to France and the calling into service of the 1918 and part of the 1919 reserves have been ineffectual in interrupting allied successes. Diminution of German strength is going on at the time when the acuteness of the situation demands an increase.

NO PEACE ON THESE TERMS.
Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—The German chancellor, Dr. Michaelis, in speaking of peace, said, according to advices reaching here today, that as long as Germany's enemies demanded any German soil, as long as they tried to drive a wedge between the German people and their emperor, peace was impossible.

By Associated Press.
Field Marshal Haig, with the help of the French, has struck another successful blow in the Ypres salient, and German tenacity of the dominant ridge east of the Ypres is nearing an end. The British yesterday captured further sections of the ridge in the direction of Passchendaele and British German hands, as well as the railway center of Staden, Rulers and Menin and the railroad between Roulers and Menin.

One more stroke, perhaps two, and the Germans must bow before the superior power of the allies in Flanders and retreat. SECRETARY LANSING HAS PROOF
THAT BERNSTORFF USED OFFICE
TO FURTHER MURDEROUS PLOTS

One Telegram Ordered Prompt Destruction of the Canadian Pacific Railroad and Interruption of Traffic. Urged Sabotage of Every Kind in the United States and Americans Who Would Assist Embassy.

Wilson's Estimate of O'Leary In Famous Telegram Is Vindicated

Washington, Oct. 10.—Another series of telegrams which passed between the German government and its embassy in his country was made public today by Secretary Lansing. They are remarkable for cunning and ingenuity displayed in the evident purpose to do all possible injury to Germany's European enemies through cutting off their resources in America, while at the same time avoiding as far as possible incurring the wrath of the American people by actual destruction of life in this country and Canada.

The three telegrams comprising this series form the natural complement to the correspondence already disclosed by the state department, conveying evidence of well calculated and systematic violation of American neutrality by Germany during a period more than a year preceding the beginning of ruthless submarine and breach of relations between Germany and the United States. Secretary Lansing said the telegrams had not been sent through the state department, thus leaving the inference that they must have moved them through one of the neutral legations. The statements follow:

"The secretary of state publishes the following two telegrams from the German foreign office to Count von Bernstorff in January, 1916:

"January 3rd.—Secret.—General staff desires energetic action in regard to the proposed destruction of Canadian Pacific railway at several points with a view to complete and protracted interruption of traffic. Captain Boehm, who is known on your side, and is shortly returning, has been given instructions. Inform the military attaches. Provide the necessary funds."

"To Carry on Sabotage.
"January 26th. For military attaché. You can obtain particulars as to persons suitable for carrying on sabotage in the United States and Canada from the following persons—one—Joseph MacCarthy, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; two—John Keating, Michigan Avenue, Chicago; three—Jeremiah O'Leary, No. 16, Park Row, New York."

"O'Leary Not Discreet.
"One and two are absolutely reliable and discreet. Number three is reliable, but not always discreet. These persons were indicated by Sir Roger Casement. In the United States sabotage can be carried out on every kind of factory for supplying of munitions of war. Railways, embankments and bridges must not be touched. Embassy must in no circumstances be compromised. Similar precautions must be taken in regard to Irish pro-German propaganda."

"Representative of General Staff."
"Refer to Dr. Hale.
"The following telegram from Count von Bernstorff to the foreign office in Berlin was sent in September, 1916:

"September 15th. With reference to report A. N. 266 of May 10th, 1916. The embargo conference in regard to whose earlier fruitful cooperation Dr. Hale can give information, is just about to enter upon a vigorous campaign to secure a majority in both houses in congress, favorable to Germany and request further support. There is no possibility of our being compromised. Request telegraphic reply."

"Presumably these papers from part of those taken by the American secret service in the raid on the office of Wolf von Igel in New York."

Removes Last.
In this latest exposure, the state department believes it has removed the last doubt that Count von Bernstorff was directing head in America for the German machine of espionage. The revelations of the part played by Jeremiah O'Leary was not unexpected and the fact that his name was suggested by Sir Roger Casement, who later was executed in England for treason, already had been indicated in early disclosures made by the department.

Causes Surprise.
The injection of the name "Dr. Hale," into the German organization was something of a surprise, however, and gave immediate rise to speculation as to just what individual was meant. Dr. William Hayard Hale, acting as a newspaper correspondent was then in Germany and admittedly close to the Berlin government.

Secretary Lansing added to the same policy of silence today as has characterized previous disclosures adding this chapter of German perfidy without comment or interpretation. It has been understood that the state department and the department of (Continued on Page Three.)

Sends Patriotic Circular to

State banks of North Dakota are called upon to get back of the second Liberty loan in a letter mailed to the state's 697 state banks and four trust companies by State Bank Examiner J. R. Waters today.

Mr. Waters says: Our department is desirous that every bank throughout the state co-operate to the fullest extent in the sale of these securities, and particularly with the state central committee in Fargo, which organization is created in a large extent to assist you in any manner whatsoever.

Your earnest cooperation is requested, as we are all joined in this campaign in a patriotic spirit; not only that North Dakota may do her share, but that we may show to the federal government that we stand ready to supply the needs of the men that North Dakota has already so generously given to the national army."

Mr. Waters calls attention to report blanks which the federal reserve bank at Minneapolis has sent all banks in this district, and urges that banks mail each night to Fargo a carbon copy of their report, in order that the state organization may have an accurate check at the close of each day's campaign of the amount of bonds subscribed, enabling them to stimulate districts which may be falling short, and to insure the subscriptions of North Dakota's whole quota.

Publication of the German foreign office's message referring to Jeremiah O'Leary caused many smiles of satisfaction at the white house. It was recalled that during the last presidential campaign O'Leary as president of the American Truth society, telegraphed the president that he and many other Americans would not vote for Mr. Wilson on account of his international policy. The president replied under date of September 29, 1916:

"Your telegram received. I would feel deeply mortified to have you or anybody like you vote for me. Since you have access to many disloyal Americans and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them."

cities located on the Soo line, Great Northern, Milwaukee, Midland Continental and Farmers' Grain and Shipping Co., to "excessive, unjust and unreasonable freight rates now in effect," and that it appears that the interstate commerce commission has decided several cases giving coal rates from Wyoming mines to points in North and South Dakota which are very much lower than the rates referred to above, the North Dakota railway commission in joint session with Governor Lynn J. Frazier and Attorney General William S. Langner yesterday adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved: That we most earnestly request the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Northern Pacific, Soo line, Great Northern, Midland Continental, Farmers' Grain & Shipping Co., and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co., to join in establishing lower joint rates from Wyoming mines to points in this state, on a basis consistent with the decisions of the interstate commerce commission in similar cases," and that "we most urgently request the active cooperation of the fuel administrator in this matter, since we feel that it is just as important to have freight rates in effect which will permit reasonable coal prices to consumers as to have reasonable prices for coal at the mouth of the mine."

Copies of these resolutions, signed by S. J. Aandahl, chairman; C. W. Hieck and M. P. Johnson, commissioners, and J. H. Calderhead, secretary of the state rail board, Governor Frazier and the attorney general are addressed to North Dakota's new fuel administrator, Capt. I. P. Baker of Bismarck, the railways involved and other interested parties.

Letter to Capt. Baker.
In a letter to Fuel Administrator Baker, J. A. Little, rate expert of the commission, calls attention to the danger of a fuel famine, and notes the necessity of a proper supply of cars and trackage facilities if the lignite resources of the state are to be intelligently utilized. He urges that coal dealers and shippers be required to load and unload cars promptly and to fill them to capacity, and advises Captain Baker of a condition existing in connection with a number of new lignite mines whose production is greatly reduced through the fact that they have been unable to obtain the nearest railway. He explains that while there is a remedy in law for this situation, it can be taken advantage of only after the commission has given the carrier a sixty-days notice, which in this case would not furnish relief before cold weather sets in and the need for fuel becomes urgent. — Ask People to Act.

The people are asked to take advantage of North Dakota's great store of native lignite in another set of resolutions, adopted by the rail board, the governor and attorney general, and addressed to the public.

Attention is called to the fact that North Dakota has the largest unmined coal tonnage of any state of the union, and that the people should immediately make provision for their future coal supply, studying the native coal available and making every effort to adapt their boilers, furnaces and stoves to the use of lignite.

The railways are asked to furnish cars promptly and make every effort to build spurs or other facilities essential to the efficient operation of North Dakota's coal mines, and the production of a maximum tonnage.

George Beban in "Lost in Transit"

You remember this wonderful character actor in "The Alien" and "Pasquale." This is another of his marvelous heart interest plays. Read a few opinions of others who have shown this feature.

Lost in Transit, with George Beban (Paramount)—Beban has never done better. He's a wonderful character actor. —Bert Goldman, New Majestic Theater, St. Paul, Minn.

Lost in Transit, with George Beban (Paramount)—Gave good satisfaction to large crowds. Second day better than the first. —M. T. Jones, Metropolitan Theater, Owatonna, Minn.

Lost in Transit, with George Beban. (Paramount)—A good picture well acted by a character star who is drawing nearer the hearts of the public with every release. Beban's son is seen in this picture and one can scarcely believe that a child could be taught to do so many fine things naturally. I would advise every father and mother to see this play. Business was good and the picture was well received during this week's run at the Rose. —H. C. Miller, Rose Theater, Chicago. —Downtown house.

Beautiful 1918 Maxwell Now On Exhibition

Without altering the world champion motor, the famous perfected clutch and transmission or the mighty axles, the Maxwell builders have produced a new wonder car, far superior in construction and in appearance to anything yet turned out by the Maxwell factories—we have this new and beautiful car—come and see it.

The car is larger and roomier, for one thing—the wheel-base has been increased six inches.
It is also a stronger and more rigid machine for the road.
The frame is now six inches instead of three inches deep.
The body rests directly on this powerful frame instead of on brackets extending from the sides, as in the past.
Do you know what that means?
It means this: The firmness with which the wheels grip the road and the steadiness of the car at high speed give you a sense of security such as you have been able to enjoy before only in cars shackled with a battery of shock absorbers.

This New Car is 50 Pounds Lighter

There's a marvel of engineering for you, friends! The car is made bigger and stronger—and yet actually lighter.

This means greater ease and comfort on the road.

More than that—it means greater economy.
And the Maxwell before was the most economical 5-passenger car in the world.
Compensating underslung rear springs—the last word in spring suspension—mark this wonderful Maxwell of 1918.
They mean greater comfort—greater economy, by lessening wear and tear on the car.

Maxwell Now Has the Style of the Costliest Cars

The new Maxwell is a car of great beauty.
It has a sloped windshield and rakish lines never before produced in any car costing less than $1200.
Its good looks now equal its proved mechanical efficiency.
The new upholstery is richer and gives a new comfort. Inside and out the new 1918 Maxwell is a perfected car. We're proud to sell it.
You'll be proud to own one.

COULD BE NO DEFENSE.

No one was greatly disturbed over La Follette's "defense." There could be no defense of the indefensible. Pacifist Bob was silent upon the indictment—the St. Paul Nonpartisan league speech. He carefully avoided any reference to the sedition practiced in Minnesota and launched into a defense of free speech, which certainly no one has denied him.

There are others whose silence is as damning as La Follette's St. Paul speech was disloyal.

PERVERSION OF THE PRIMARY.

New York's mayoralty election represents how easily the political bosses can corrupt a primary. An eleventh hour candidate for mayor appeared on the republican ballot. Tammany, unopposed, swarmed into the republican primaries and selected Bennett, a much weaker candidate than Mitchell.

As a contributing factor to the success of an old and overworked political coup, many respectable citizens failed to vote at the primaries. Their "slacking" made it easy for the professional politicians to get the desired alignment.

Now Mr. Bennett is the republican candidate for mayor of greater New York, while Mr. Mitchell, a victim of Tammany plots and deals, must run as an independent. In a three-cornered fight, the chances of the evil forces returning Tammany to power seems imminent.

Friends of good government have their eyes on New York and trust that Mitchell will put the reactionaries to flight.

OFF TO WAR.

Again we are in a great struggle for mankind.
We hear the sounds of preparation—the music of boisterous drums, the silver voices of heroic bugles. We see thousands of assemblages, and hear the appeals of orators. We see the pale cheeks of women, and the flushed faces of men, and in those assemblages we see all the dead whose dust we have covered with flowers. We lose sight of them no more. We are with them as they march in the great army of human freedom.

We see them apart with those they love. Some are walking for the last time in quiet, woody places, with the maidens they adore. We hear the whisperings and the sweet vows of eternal love as they lingeringly part. Others are bending over cradles, kissing babes that are asleep. Some are receiving the blessing of old men. Some are parting with mothers who hold them and press them to their hearts again and again, and say nothing. And some are talking with wives, and endeavoring with brave words spoken in the old tones to drive from their hearts the awful fear. We see them part. We see the wife standing in the door with the babe in her arms, standing in the sunlight sobbing. At the turn of the street a hand waves—she answers by holding high a flag loving and the child looks on. We see them all as they arch proudly away under the fluttering flags and march to the front with the music of war, marching toward the front, marching toward the front, marching toward the front.

We are with them in the hospitals of pain or all the weary marches. We stand guard with them in the wild storm and under the quiet stars. We are with them in the trenches running with blood, in the shell craters of the blasted fields. We are with them between contending hosts, unable to move, wild with thirst, the life ebbing slowly away upon the torn and trodden earth. We see them pierced with balls and torn with shells in the trenches, by the forts, and in the whirlwind of the charge, where men become iron, with nerves of steel. We are with them in the prisons of hatred and famine.

We are with our heroes and they with us, whatever comes, till time ends.

The foregoing is almost exactly what Poi Ingersoll wrote, nearly a half century ago.

DEADLINE OF DELAY.

The United States supreme court, after a restless vacation, has reconvened and it will have before it the most momentous question since those famous slavery cases.

Is the draft law constitutional? This is a question in which the whole world is vitally interested, for upon it largely depends the power of civilization to defend itself against barbaric autocracy. Everywhere, in this crucial issue between human freedom and brutal autocracy, we see stalemate. The greatest navies of the world are unable to decide it. The "starvation policy" is at stalemate, and so is the bloody work of land fighting. Utter ruin through exhaustion seems to be the only prospect.

UNLESS THE UNITED STATES THROWS ALL OF ITS POWER, IN MEN, MONEY AND MATERIAL, INTO THE BALANCE.

This is the naked question before that court, and there is far more in it than mere governmental law. In it is involved not only the constitutionality of the draft act, but the life of the constitution itself.

GOD HELP OUR CONSTITUTIONAL IDEALS OF GOVERNMENT, IF GERMAN AUTOCRACY IS NOT WIPE OUT!

Not only is this draft case of paramount importance but it is vital that decision on it should be rendered at the earliest possible moment. We have declared war on the most powerful martial nation this world ever knew. Constitutionally or otherwise, we have already spent billions, broken up millions of homes and business concerns in order to prosecute our war to the best of our ability. A lingering doubt as to our ability to make war would make us a thing to be laughed at and scorned by Russians, Mexicans, Chinese or any other nation impotent to carry out a great national purpose. It would spell wreck and ruin, if not downright anarchy, in these United States. Under the regular order, this draft issue would not come up in the United States supreme court for 18 months. Picture our allies, picture ourselves, under 18 months of doubt as to whether we can make war! Shall the bloody slaughter of the best men of Europe, the outrage of her women, the burning of her homes and public institutions, the universal massacre of innocents go on for months because our hands are tied fast by the red tape of courts? Shall we continue sending our beloved sons, brothers, husbands into the camps as heroes, under months of doubt as to whether they may not come sneaking back home as discredited, dishonored and defeated bluffers? Far better that we drown our courts and burn up our constitution.

Wouldn't it be well to observe how many of the office holders who are exempt from income taxation wear the "I've bought a bond" badge? German consulate forces at Barcelona have been greatly increased. Look out, Alfonso! You're going to be knifed in the back.

New Map of Europe As Proposed by Theodore Roosevelt

This is how Roosevelt would make a Czech commonwealth composed of Bohemians, Moravians and Slovaks, Hungary and the free city of Constantinople. France would get back all the territory taken by the Germans in this war and Alsace-Lorraine. All German colonies taken by the British

Senator Robinson of Arkansas Gives La Follette the Answer Which Frazier Failed to Do

EDITOR'S NOTE—Senator Robinson of Arkansas uttered a philippic in the United States senate Saturday, which will go down into history. The Tribune, in its issue of Saturday, reprints the official text of the speech. The editor's only regret is that when La Follette uttered his sedition in the presence of Governor Frazier at St. Paul that the executive of this state did not answer disloyalty with loyalty so that North Dakota rather than Arkansas might have had the imperishable fame of defending the nation against one of her most vicious traitors.

The Tribune commends the sentiments of Senator Robinson to its many loyal readers: Following Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, Senator Robinson last week made a speech in the United States senate last Saturday morning, which was the first time since the war that a senator had spoken before the war of the American people. The full text of the speech has not been circulated generally throughout North Dakota. Its patriotism is the kind of gospel the times call for. The speech follows in full.

"The senator from Wisconsin," Senator Robinson said, "seems to me strangely inconsistent in insisting upon his right under the constitutional guaranty of free speech to declare in substance that this government has entered upon war for no just cause, and to assail the executive department of the government for its manner of conducting this conflict, to assail the legislative branch of the government for their failure to perform its alleged duty, and even to attack the courts of the United States for their failure to protect the citizens of this country in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights."

"If it is the right of a senator of the United States to speak freely upon topics of this character, why should not the senator from Wisconsin or any other senator entertaining these views denounce newspaper men and other citizens of this country who, in the exercise of the same right of free thought and free speech, have declared that the senator ought to abandon his seat in the United States senate and seek membership in the German Bundestag?"

Lincoln and Webster.

"The senator from Wisconsin has sought to justify his attitude in this debate upon the record of Abraham Lincoln and Daniel Webster. It may be recalled that Mr. Lincoln, who introduced the resolution denouncing and criticizing his government for entering the Mexican war and for its manner of conducting that conflict, was defeated for re-election by an Illinois constituent."

Daniel Webster is not remembered, his name does not linger in the memory of millions of American citizens, because of the act of which the senator from Wisconsin has spoken to-day, because of his criticism of his government for entering the Mexican war; but Daniel Webster will live as long as men love liberty in the hearts of the American people because he stood in this sacred presence many years ago and declared himself for the preservation of his country and the maintenance of his flag.

Says Senate Should Quit.

"It is a singular thing to me, that a senator of the United States should for one and a half or three hours in denouncing his government and have not one word for that flag, not one word to utter for the commander in chief of the armies of the United States, not one word to express encouragement of the men who have already been sent to the far-stretched battle fronts of Europe, and who are now upholding with their lives, the honor, the dignity, the safety of this great nation."

"If it is a privilege of free speech for senators to test the patience of their colleagues and the patience of the citizens of this nation, it is equally a right of other citizens, in the exercise of free speech, to criticize the conduct of senators."

"If I entertained the sentiments which the senator from Wisconsin has expressed in this presence this morn-

A "Dog-erel" to a "Pig-Headed" Senator

The optimist says that in all this world, in all things there is something good. Were I to apply that to Lob La Follette's case, I fear I would be misunderstood. When Old Bob made a fool of himself and tried to make a fool of the U. S. A. He roused the red blood in all of our veins, to fight until we win the day. When I was a boy a red-headed kid thought he would wallop me round. But when he got tough, then I got rough and my strength and his weakness I found. An idealist once to a soldier said "Go out for Democracy's right." Democracy yes, but we are going to show the kaiser just how we can fight. So, here's to Old Bob who is nagging the boys on and making them anxious to fight. But when they come home, tho they will be ashamed of you, they will be proud of America's right. —A READER.

ing I would not wait for the United States senate to pass upon the question of my loyalty or disloyalty. I would seek the companionship of those whom my discussions and my sentiments are calculated to support.

Speech at St. Paul.

"The senator from Minnesota (Mr. Kellogg) has discussed an address credited to the senator from Wisconsin made in St. Paul some days ago. In that address the senator from Wisconsin is charged with saying that for the purpose of vindicating the right of venturesome citizens to ride on passenger vessels transporting ammunition, I want to know from senators now assembled whether they believe that that is a frank exercise of the right of free speech."

"The senator from Wisconsin is one of the best informed men in the United States senate. I want to know from you, sirs, whether or not you believe that that was a statement of the sentiments of the senator from Wisconsin."

"If he believes that the United States is involved in this conflict for that cause or if he believes that is the principal cause which brought the United States into this conflict, his attitude is justified; but where does he get his information?"

Forced into the War.

"The whole speech of the senator from Wisconsin is based upon the erroneous assumption that the United States declared war against Germany and forced war on her. We did no such thing. The United States recognized a state of war which had already been existing between the United States and Germany for many months, for some years; and that state of war was brought about by the brutal, lawless disregard of the German government of the rights of American citizens and of the sovereignty of this great nation, and a senator who can find it in his heart to say, here or elsewhere, that the United States went to war for the trivial cause is, to say the least, lacking in information which a senator should possess."

"The senator, during the course of his address, referred to the failure of the courts to protect citizens of the United States in the exercise of their rights as citizens."

"Sent in Bundestag."

"I was astounded when, at the very beginning of his address, he made the statement that government agencies, acting under the authority of the executive, are invading the private homes of the citizens, are arresting and confining citizens, innocent and loyal American citizens, in jail without warrant and without cause, that they are violating every private and sacred right of the people of this government."

"I say to you that, while I cannot find language within the rules of the senate to appropriately characterize the sentiments uttered on this floor this morning by the senator from Wisconsin, if I entertained those sentiments I would not think I had the right to retain a seat on the floor of the United States senate. I would apply to the kaiser for a seat in the Bundestag."

Refuses Help to Belgium.

Senator Robinson's resolution against annexations and indemnities. "The correct construction of that language," Senator Robinson said, "is that it is designed to prevent the allies, in case of victory, from compelling Germany to indemnify Belgium for the misery and desolation which she has so lawlessly brought to that kingdom, for the wreck and ruin which has followed in the path of the German armies as they lawlessly invaded the kingdom of Belgium."

It will be remembered that at the outbreak of the war Germany invaded both Belgium and France. She justified her invasion of Belgium on the ground of alleged military necessity, and the kaiser promised indemnity at the end of the war. He recognized that he was violating international law. He recognized that he was tearing up statutes and denouncing them as mere scraps of paper. He said that in order to carry out the military purpose of the German army it was necessary to violate the sovereignty of Belgium and to invade her, and that when the war was over they would make reparation for that damage.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow.)

WITH THE EDITORS

NOW, MR. BAER.

(Minneapolis Journal.)

John M. Baer, North Dakota's Nonpartisan league congressman, promptly assigned Colonel Roosevelt to the Annapolis club for charging him with saying in his campaign for election that "Americanism is not an issue."

The charge was made by the colonel on the occasion of his Twin City visit, and it evoked from Mr. Baer a long telegram in which he denied "once and for all" that he had ever made the statement that "Americanism is not an issue."

But the files of the Fargo Courier-News, organ of the Nonpartisan league, furnish evidence that Mr. Baer did make precisely the statement that Colonel Roosevelt accused him of making. On June 28, under a Cando, N. D. date line, the Nonpartisan organ printed an account of a speech by Mr. Baer, and quotes him as saying:

"Bread and butter problems are before the people today. Bread and butter problems have to be solved. It is no time to attempt to make Americanism an issue and win the campaign by flag-waving."

Really, Mr. Baer owes Colonel Roosevelt an apology, unless he means to consign the Courier-News, which is supported, maintained and edited by the league whose candidate he was, to that same Annapolis club whither he advises the colonel to retire.

GOOD AMERICANISM.

Governor Norbeck is doing a big, broad, patriotic, constructive work in the speeches he is making throughout the state this year of our entrance into the war.

It needs just some such talk of loyalty to the ideals of our nation as he is delivering in so many places in the state to bring home to a great many persons the fact that this country is in the way for good reason and that the only way out of it is straight through to a victory that will end forever the possibility of one man or one nation setting its hands to an ambition to rule the world.

The calls upon his time have been many, but they are worth heeding, for this is important work to be done.—Aberdeen American.

THERE'S A LIMIT.

Did you ever stop to think that Uncle Sam is very, very lenient? Never entered your mind? Look here. Uncle Sam has found hundreds of men, since the war broke out, that have openly defied him. He imposes a small fine, with perhaps a few months in prison, in some cases, and lets it go at that. Ask any German-born citizen what the kaiser does with men that openly defy him, and the answer will be that they are put on the firing line and closely guarded. And it is perfectly right. What did Russia do a short time ago to a lot of traitors—she sent them to the happy hunting grounds and they deserved it.—The Burford Times.

MIGHT CONSULT FRAZIER.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago is suing the papers in that city for defamation of character to the tune of a million and a half dollars. Hasn't "his honor" got a war price attached to the damaged article? A million and a half. With all that money he could give Max Eastman a swell banquet—in some city that would stand for it.—Cogswell Enterprise.

NOT ENOUGH OF 'EM.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin would dearly love to be president of the United States, but he will need more than the support of the socialists, I. W. W., element and pro-Germans to land the big job.—Portland International.

WHO COULD THEY MEAN?

"We have with us today," Governor Peter Norbeck, who talks sound Americanism, real patriotism, and boosts his home state and for the United States in a fashion startlingly lacking in one or two governors in the United States.—Aberdeen News.

THE BATHING GIRLS WITH OLIVER MOROSCO'S BIG MUSICAL SUCCESS, "SO LONG LETTY," COMING TO THE AUDITORIUM ON THURSDAY.

"So Long Letty" Oliver Morosco's seasonal musical success, which will be the offering at the Auditorium Thursday night. Mr. Morosco will send the original New York production and excellent cast which gladdened Broadway for 20 weeks the early part of this season. The costumes are all bright and new and the scenery is gorgeous. The musical numbers, of which there are 13, contain a number of the popular whistling variety, many of which are well known to the local playgoers. Probably the best remembered being "So Long Letty." Here Come the Married Men" and "Pass Around the Apples Once Again."

Unlike the former production, which was laid in a cottage, the new "Letty" will be seen first in the exterior of two street cars in the street colony of San Francisco Bay, the second being the interior of one of the cars. The orchestra will be augmented by a number of novelty instruments.

Aristocracy

By BERTON BRALEY.

Aristocracy, we need them in this land. Not Gold-Aristocrats or those of birth. But true Aristocrats of valid worth. Fitted to follow or to take command. Whoever trains his intellect or hand. To serve the world more ably than his neighbor. Whoever dignifies his daily labor. With zeal to learn and zest to understand. Is an aristocrat.

To such as these Who dream more nobly, think more wisely, play To better purpose and, with brain and nerve, Devote themselves to life's brave argosies. The world belongs. They are the blue-blooded Aristocracy of Those Who Serve!

Bismarck Nurses Called for Service Remembered by Alumnae and Friends

The dining room of the Grand Pacific was the scene of a handsomely appointed luncheon party this afternoon when the Bismarck hospital alumnae entertained for the four nurses who have been called for government service, the Misses Louise Frankhauser, Madeline Martell and Wanda Kurth, who leave this evening on No. 2 for New York and Miss Carrie Goodman who has been called with the North Dakota detachment No. 50 to go to Texas.

Clusters of red roses ornamented the table which held covers for 25. Miss Tiechman, president of the Bismarck Hospital Alumnae presided and gave a most enjoyable reading. Miss Sands, principal of the hospital training school gave a farewell toast to the girls in behalf of the school, and Miss Gustafson also responded to a toast by a clever reading. Miss Louise Hoernman, superintendent of the school is out of town and was unable to attend.

Last evening a committee of the nurses composed of Miss Friesse, Miss Engstrom, Miss Koenig and Miss Lindor with the assistance of Mrs. W. J. Hutcheson entertained at a prettily appointed dinner party in the home of Mrs. Hutcheson in Sixth street for the same honor guests. Yellow roses were used to center the table and covers were laid for the honor guests, Anna Frankhauser, sister of Miss Louise, Miss Elmer, Miss Schroeder, Miss Johnson, Miss Peterson and the hostesses. Following the dinner the guests gathered around the fireplace and told reminiscences of their student days in the training school.

National Women's Party Worker to Interpret Suffrage Acts in N. D.

Miss Jane Pincus of New York will arrive in Fargo on Sunday from the headquarters of the National Women's Party in Washington, to begin a series of meetings throughout North Dakota in the interest of the organization. Miss Pincus is coming to cooperate with the local committee of which Mrs. Elizabeth Darrow O'Neill of Fargo, is chairman. Meetings will be held in Fargo, Bismarck and Grand Forks with Mabel Vernon and Mrs. Lawrence Lewis as the speakers.

These meetings will be held in connection with the nation-wide campaign which was recently announced by Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the Woman's Party.

Miss Pincus is one of the big workers for the suffrage amendment and has devoted the last five years of her life to the work of her party. She will go to South Dakota, Nebraska, and New Mexico after finishing the work in this state.

BISMARCK NURSE TO LEAVE WITH DETACHMENT

Another of the Bismarck hospital nurses has been called for government service, making four within a week. The last one is Miss Carrie Goodman and she will be stationed at Bloomfield, Texas. Miss Goodman is a member of the Emergency Detachment No. 50, which is made up of North Dakota nurses. Miss Goodman will leave Thursday evening for Texas.

This evening on No. 2 the Misses Madeline Martell, Louise Frankhauser and Wanda Kurth will leave for New York city to report for duty.

The personnel of the detachment includes Miss Mathilda Hoff, Miss Rena Olson, Miss Alma Ophelm, Miss M. Hanson and Mrs. Sara Haugen of Grand Forks; Miss Beatrice Bain, and Miss Signe Lee of Fargo, Miss Mary Penky of Beach, and Miss Carrie Goodman of Bismarck.

Miss Hoff has been ordered to a large army hospital in New York; Miss Ophelm, Miss Olson, Miss Hanson and Miss Haugen have been ordered to report at Fort Sam Houston, Houston, Tex., and the other members of the detachment will go to Bloomfield, Texas.

Miss McCulloch, of Grand Forks will continue her organization of nursing units and expects to have a sufficient number of nurses lined up for the formation of another detachment within a very short time.

Church Society Meeting.
The Baptist Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon in the basement parlors. Mrs. Nellie Everts and Mrs. Flannigan will be the hostesses.

Returns From the East.
Dr. G. R. Lipp of the firm of Roan, Fisher and Strauss, returned last evening from Chicago where he has been spending some time attending a series of clinics.

Guild Meeting.
St. George's Guild of St. George's Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon in the parish house. Members are asked to attend, as a number of important matters will be considered.

Entertaining Sister.
Mrs. George Will of Third street and Mrs. E. J. Taylor of Fourth street, are entertaining as their guest their sister, Mrs. N. W. Kelley of Lakota. Mrs. Kelley will remain in the city until November 1.

SISTERS STAR WITNESSES FOR BROTHER ON TRIAL IN BABY KEET KIDNAPING CASE

MISS ALICE PIERSE

MISS HELEN PIERSE

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 10.—Claude Pierse, on trial for the alleged kidnapping of Baby Keet, 14-month old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. Holland Keet, will have no more faithful defenders than his two beautiful sisters, Misses Helen and Alice Pierse.

Pierse twice had a hangman's noose thrown around his neck by a mob in a vain effort to make him confess taking the baby whose body was afterward found in an abandoned well. He insisted then as strongly as he now does that he had nothing to do with the abduction.

His sisters will testify in his behalf in a trial which promises to be one of the most sensational ever held in the southwest.

BESSIE BARRISCALE HAS NEW LEADING MAN IN NEW PLAY.

Bessie Barriscale is seen in a fantasy-drama of the mountains in "Lawbs o' Blue Ridge," a new Triangle Kay Bee play from the pen of Monte M. Katterjohn. This is the subject that has been spoken of as a "second edition of Peggy," and in it Miss Barriscale is said to present a characterization quite as naive and charming as did Miss Burke in the former Triangle lace success.

"Lawbs o' Blue Ridge" is the effervescent tale of a mountain wail whose ignorance of grammar nearly results in a disaster. Its action is laid in the mountains of Virginia and concerns the romance that served to lighten the burdensome existence of Barbara Colby, orphan and companion of bugs, bees, frogs and birds.

A new leading man—new at least to Triangle patrons—is seen opposite Miss Barriscale in this play. He is Arthur Shirley, and he plays the part of Ralph Gunther, the "writin' man," who at last brings happiness into the life of the little wail.

To enjoy this picture and spend a pleasant hour and a half you will have to follow the crowd to the Orpheum tonight.

Growing Old Gracefully

All of us are growing old. Shall we go into old age with clear minds and strong bodies, or shall we become pitiful because of our infirmities? That depends on how we treat our bodies in youth and in prime.

Let strength be sapped by illness, and the result is an unhappy old age, if we live our allotted time. Neglected colds, indigestion and constipation are the commonest enemies. All of them lead to, if they are not results of catarrh, which weakens and stagnates as it spreads.

Fortify With PERUNA

Drive the catarrh out of the system, improve the digestion, remove the stagnation, and build up the strength. Peruna is a good tonic, and specially effective in catarrhal conditions of the respiratory and digestive organs. Its nearly half a century of usefulness has proved this. Preserve strength for time's encroachment by its use.

RANCH DRILL IS LISTING CATCHES FOR HER FRIENDS

Mrs. Theodore Schwinden At-tempting to Pass Good For-tune Along to Pals

Berthold, N. D., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Theodore Schwinden a few months ago an overworked, underpaid Chicago stenographer, and now owner of one of North Dakota's finest ranches, as a result of Louis Hill's cupid special to the livestock show, believes in passing a good thing along. Consequently she has listed all the eligible bachelors in the reservation country and is writing her Chicago friends about them.

Some of the class'cars are read as follows:

"... 32 years old, five feet tall, jolly and plump, owns 640 acres; TOURING CAR; rents his farm and lives in town very shy)

"... six feet tall; light hair, blue eyes, rosy cheeks, hard working, honest, straight forward, deep thinker, well educated; self made. The girl he marries must come up to his ideals and HE WILL DO THE PROPOSING. He owns a touring car, and doesn't drink anything but water."

"Nothing could induce me to ex-change this natural, wholesome coun-try life, with acres for a front yard and acres for a back yard, for the con-finement of a city office and a city flat with a 2x4 yard," writes Mrs. Lottie Kennedy Schwinden to her Chi-cago girl friends

SCOOPE THE CUB REPORTER It Wasn't the Right Lady That Received the Gift By "Hop"

Dobie's Football Lessons The Art of Tackling

By GILMOUR DOBIE.

The most effective weapon in pos-session of the defensive team is its ability to tackle well. No team can be overwhelmingly defeated if it con-tains good tacklers. The players should constantly practice the various kinds of tackling to become so ac-customed to it that they seldom miss their man.

Generally speaking there are two kinds of tackling: the head-on tackle and the side tackle. The head-on tackle is the one in which the run-ner is met by the tackler coming straight at him.

The tackler should approach his man low with his weight well forward and his shoulders no higher than the runner's knees. At the instant he makes his tackle he should drive into the man with a powerful leg drive and meet the runner just above or below the knees. The tackler should grip firmly and if possible carry the runner back.

The men backing up the line are called upon to make this form of tackle most often.

The side tackle is the one in which the tackler meets the runner at an angle. In these tackles, the runner is either approaching the tackler's left or right shoulder.

When the runner is approaching the tackler's left shoulder the tackler should keep his weight well down and time his speed in such a way that he will intercept the runner and drive his body across his path directly in front. In this case, the tackler should take off his right foot which should be planted about two feet from the run-ner and about one yard ahead, so that he may be able to shoot his head and body in front of the runner. By tak-ing off with the right foot in this man-ner the tackler is given a leg drive which carries his body well across the path of the runner and in case of a miss the runner is obstructed by the tackler's body.

There is another form of side tack-ling which is very generally used and very effective. The form used should be identical with the above descrip-tion, only the tackler allows his head to slip just behind the runner and takes the impact on the opposite shoulder. I think the form in which the tackler shoots his head in front of the runner is the more effective.

Who Composed Music of "Star Spangled Banner?"

Does anyone know who com-posed the music of "The Star-Spangled Banner?" The hymn, "Anacron in Heaven," com-posed by John Smith, an Eng-lishman, about 1770 is the origi-nal music of the national an-them, according to a recollecting official of the United States Ma-rine corps.

Anacron was an ancient Greek poet, a sycophant and a great drunkard, according to his-tory. The young Maryland law-yer, Francis Scott Key, set the words of his masterpiece to the tune of Smith's hymnal inspira-tion.

DISTRICT BOARD ANXIOUS TO GET NEWS OF CRAFT

Chairman Birdzell Declares Body Will Welcome Public's Assistance

RECORDS OPEN; STAR
CHAMBER NOT IN USE

Affidavits and Claims Reveal
Nothing Irregular Under Close Scrutiny

"Any evidence upon which charges of irregularity in obtaining exemptions or discharges from the district board may be based will be most welcome received," said Associate Justice Luther E. Birdzell, chairman of the North Dakota state exemption board, today, in discussing charges brought by the local legion of Grand Forks and other patriotic organizations.

"We have proceeded very carefully," said (chairman Birdzell, "and we have not found anything which even hinted of irregularity in any of the claims upon which we have passed or in the affidavits accompanying them. The board has full power to revoke discharge at any time, and it has done this in a large number of cases in which additional evidence has been submitted. I wish to assure any citizen of any county in North Dakota who has any proof in his possession that there has been anything improper in connection with the procuring of discharges from this board that his complaint will receive prompt, careful and courteous consideration."

Records Are Open.
All of the records of the district board have been open at all times to the press. So far as can be learned there have been no star chamber sessions. Today a reporter was urged to remain in the board room while three sets of claimants from different parts of the state were heard. The cases all appeared on their face to be worthy of favorable consideration, but in each instance the board had already denied a discharge, basing its action upon a more complete report on all phases of the case. All of the affidavits filed in support of claims have been placed at the disposal of the press, and reporters after a diligent search through the records of counties from which the most complaints have come have been unable to find anything suspicious. The affidavits do not appear to be made out

It can be installed in any type of furnace, hot water or steam heating plants, cook stoves, producing sufficient heat to keep any hotel, apartment house or residence as warm as required in the coldest weather.

The burners are simple to operate and are perfectly safe; there are a great many of them in use in different states.

They can be seen operating in different types of stoves and heating plants at 726 Hennepin Ave., Minneapolis. You are invited to call and see demonstration. Your coal worries will be ended as soon as you start using the Regal Burner.

Total subscriptions aggregating $8,712,000, of which $5,181,556 already has been paid. North Dakota's bit was $3,327; South Dakota gave $2,409; Montana, $15,463; Nebraska, $1,187; Wyoming, $7,559; Iowa, $23,789; and Colorado, $25,10. NO CONFIRMATION OF REPORTS THAT QUOTA GOES 25 PER CENT

Adjutant General Fraser Still Lacking Official Advice—No
Rejections Noted

No confirmation is obtainable locally of reports emanating from Camp Dodge, at Des Moines, to the effect that all of the remaining 55 percent of North Dakota's national army quota will be called October 25. No official notice has been received by Adjutant General Fraser. It is anticipated that at least ten days' notice will be given of the call. A majority of North Dakota's counties have their remaining 55 percent ready to entrain. Exceptions need be made only in one or two cases, where the number of registrants rejected was exceptionally high.

General Fraser has received no advice on rejections for physical disqualifications made on the examination of men sent to Camp Dodge on the second call. Neither is there any word to the effect that any new recruits of the Second regiment have been rejected on physical examination at Camp Greene. Only five men Dodge were found physically disqualified, and the standard of North Dakota's soldiers in both the guard and the national army has been regarded as unusually high.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD TOT CAUGHT UNDER LOAD; LIFE CRUSHED OUT

Father, Dazed by Accident, Carries Lifeless Form of Child
for Miles

Beach, N. D., October 10.—Wilbur, the five-year-old son of Roy Goodwin, was caught under a sliding load of ties and instantly killed near the C. G. Tabor place. The youngster had pleaded to accompany his father, who was hauling ties to the Brownling homestead. The load slipped while the wagon was going up a steep grade, the boy was killed and the father sustained a broken arm and other injuries which rendered him unconscious. Partially recovering, he did not realize that his little son was dead, and neighbors met Goodwin carrying the stark body of the little youngster with his one sound arm, while the other hung limp at his side. The boy is the second child whom Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin have lost this year.
